

'Cat Burglar' Sentencing Set Feb. 28

A 19-year-old Torrance man who pleaded guilty on two counts of burglary last week will be sentenced Feb. 28 in Inglewood Superior Court.

Anthony P. Bilotti, 215 S. Dolores St., entered the guilty pleas before Superior Judge Allen Miller at arraignment following his Jan. 10 arrest by Torrance police.

Bilotti was charged by Torrance officers with being a "cat burglar" and a list of burglaries he allegedly admitted included a dozen in Torrance, 27 in Lennox, 10 in El Segundo and others in Redondo Beach, Hawthorne, and Inglewood.

He was arrested in downtown Torrance after Officer Robert Such, on parking enforcement detail, spotted his vehicle.

AT ANNUAL MEETING . . . Miss Vivian Osborn, associate professor in physical education at Los Angeles City College and newly elected president of the Los Angeles Area Council, Camp Fire Girls, and James A. Davis, Harbor District chairman and Council board member, are pictured at recent annual dinner meeting of the Council in Hollywood.

Camp Fire Leaders of Area Win Recognition

The Los Angeles Area Council of Camp Fire Girls recently held their annual dinner meeting at the Hollywood Palladium, with over 500 adult members in attendance.

Local residents elected to serve on the council under the newly elected president, Miss Vivian Osborn, were Emerson Plunkett, first vice president; Ted S. Penfold, board member, and James A. Davis, Harbor District chairman, board member.

Davis and Plunkett also have been elected to the board of Region V and will attend the regional meeting in Las Vegas on March 1 and 2.

THE HIGHEST national award which can be given to a local council member, the Luther Halsey Gulick award, was presented to Mrs. Norman Leonard, the retiring council president, by Mrs. Edward Lynch, member of the board of directors and Marina District chairman.

Eighteen Wakan Service Awards, given by the Council's National Awards committee for outstanding work in districts, were presented by Herbert Atkinson, former chairman of Imperial District. Local recipient was Mrs. James Walters of Marina district.

CERTIFICATES of appreciation for their outstanding service to Camp Fire Girls and to youth were presented by Armand C. Feichtmeir, chairman, public relations committee, to the following organizations: Camp Bureau of the Welfare Planning Council; Los Angeles Herald-Examiner; Recreation and Parks Department, City of Los Angeles; Southern California Gas Co.; the Dobie Gillis Show; I. Magnin & Co.; Los Angeles Audubon Society; the May Co.; Los Angeles Beautiful; and George Putnam.

RH Church Presents Soloist

Helen Alexander, lyric soprano, will be the featured soloist at the Rolling Hills Covenant Church, 2221 Palos Verdes Drive North, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Alexander, a resident of this community and a former member of the local Covenant church, is soloist for the Christian Women's Club of the Los Angeles area. She will be accompanied by Eleanor Oldrid, church pianist.

"A Conquering aith" will be the subject of the sermon to be delivered by the pastor, the Rev. Robert A. Honnette, at the 11 o'clock morning worship service.

The special music for this service will include an anthem by the Sanctuary Choir under the direction of Mel Anderson, and a solo by Mrs. W. H. Howe.

The Rev. Robert A. Honnette pastor of the church, announces that the public is cordially invited to attend these services.

A material sense of existence is not the scientific fact of being. — Mary Baker Eddy.
